

“Breaking of the Bread” Gospel Concert
Sunday, June 15, 2008
3:00 p.m.

Riggio-Lynch Chapel
Children’s Defense Fund Haley Farm
1000 Alex Haley Lane
Clinton, Tennessee

In conjunction with the Smithsonian Traveling Exhibit, “New Harmonies: Celebrating American Roots Music,” the Green McAdoo Cultural Organization will hold its closing event at the Riggio-Lynch Chapel at the CDF Haley Farm. This event will showcase local gospel choirs and musicians. There is no cost for admission, and the public is invited.

Directions to CDF Haley Farm from Clinton/ Oak Ridge:

- ⇒ Make right turn at First National Bank on Seivers Blvd. (Across from ACHS)
- ⇒ Make left turn on Sinking Springs Road
- ⇒ Make right turn into first gravel driveway

Directions from Knoxville:

- ⇒ Take I-75 N
- ⇒ Take Exit #122
- ⇒ Turn left onto Seivers Blvd.
- ⇒ Turn left onto Frank Diggs Road at I-75 Industrial Park sign
- ⇒ Turn right onto Sinking Springs Road

Contact person: Theresa Venable 865-457-6466

Performers Will Include:

- ◆ Oak Valley Baptist Church’s Voices of Praise Gospel Choir
- ◆ Asbury UMC Choir featuring soloists Carolyn Wilkerson and Delores Cole
- ◆ Haven Chapel United Methodist Church Choir
- ◆ Five Star Jubilee Gospel Group
- ◆ Spurgeon Chapel Gospel Choir
- ◆ Philippi Chapel Gospel Choir
- ◆ Mr. Bob Marks, Vocalist
- ◆ Mrs. Vera Hill, Gospel Guitarist

CDF Haley Farm
865-457-6466 (phone)
865-457-6464 (fax)

